Class attendance is strongly recommended. I encourage you to work with a partner on any labs (unless I specifically state otherwise) but you are responsible for being able to explain what you turn in to my satisfaction. Late labs might not be accepted so you would be wise to turn them in on time. Your performance on your final project, however, must reflect your work alone. You are responsible for knowing when all work is due.

The final exam schedule is set by the registrar's office. That time will be used for students to present their final projects.

The best way to contact me is by email, jeff@lclark.edu. I read it several times a day during the week and usually even on the weekends. Please use your Lewis and Clark email, not some other email. You will find that I am fairly prompt about responding and I hope you will be as well.

The Festival of Scholars will be held on Friday, April 12, 2024. Classes will be canceled on that day but you are still expected to participate in the Festival, either by presenting your work or attending presentations by your fellow students.
